DISTRICT COUNCIL NOMINATING COMMITTEE TO LAUNCH NOMINATION PROCESS FOR THE COMMUNITY COMMISSION FOR PUBLIC SAFETY AND ACCOUNTABILITY

CHICAGO- The District Council Nominating Committee invites the community to the historic announcement and commencement of the nomination process for the Community Commission for Public Safety and Accountability. The kick-off press conference is scheduled to take place on Monday, January 8, 2024 at City Hall, Floor 2 (121 N LaSalle Street) at 10:00am.

The event on January 8, 2024 serves as a beacon of opportunity for communities to participate in shaping the future of public safety and police accountability in Chicago. Members of the Nominating Committee will share insights into the application process, the nomination criteria, and the pivotal role the CCPSA plays in fostering transparency, oversight, and community engagement with law enforcement.

“We invite all community members, press, advocates for change, and those passionate about community-centered policing to join us at City Hall on January 8, 2024, as we embark on this transformative journey toward a safer Chicago,” said Jocelyn Woodards, 11th District Councilor.
