On December 4, 2017, as part of the 'Year of Public Art,' Mayor Rahm Emanuel and the Chicago Department of Cultural Affairs and Special Events dedicated "RUSH MORE" on the west (Garland Court) façade of the Chicago Cultural Center. The design for this epic, large-scale mural was generously gifted to city by the internationally renowned artist and MacArthur Fellow Kerry James Marshall. The mural honors 20 women who have shaped the city's vibrant arts and culture landscape. The 132-foot by 100-foot mural is the largest artwork the artist has ever designed or created. The painting was executed by Jeff Zimmerman and funded by Murals of Acceptance in loving memory of Alexis Arquette.
