

Department of Cultural Affairs and Special Events (DCASE) 2023 Neighborhood Access Program Full Proposal Guidelines

FULL PROPOSAL DEADLINE: Thursday, August 31 at 5pm Central Time

Application link will be emailed to invited finalists.

BY INVITATION ONLY: The City of Chicago Department of Cultural Affairs and Special Events (DCASE) is currently accepting full proposals for its new Neighborhood Access Program. The goal of this program is to support the cultural vitality of every neighborhood via grant programs and partnerships designed to be responsive to the complex needs of individual communities. This program offers direct grants for all types of community-based arts and culture activities.

Mayor Brandon Johnson and DCASE are committed to directing significant funding to Chicago's neighborhoods, and prioritizing areas that have suffered from a history of disinvestment. We know that these neighborhoods are vibrant and densely populated with artists, yet they remain under-resourced by our grant programs.

This program was created to support arts and culture activities in all neighborhoods with a focus on those that have traditionally not received significant funding through DCASE's Cultural Grants Program, and to collaborate with other City departments to make a collective impact on neighborhoods identified through the INVEST South/West and Our City, Our Safety initiatives.

This program seeks to increase access to DCASE funding with expanded eligibility criteria and a revised application process. The full proposal includes the submission of supporting documents and an online interview.

Land Acknowledgement: The City of Chicago is located on land that is and has long been a center for Native peoples. The area is the traditional homelands of the Anishinaabe, or the Council of the Three Fires: the Ojibwe, Odawa, and Potawatomi Nations. Many other Nations consider this area their traditional homeland, including the Myaamia, Ho-Chunk, Menominee, Sac and Fox, Peoria, Kaskaskia, Wea, Kickapoo, and Mascouten. The City specifically acknowledges the contributions of Kitihawa of the Potawatomi in fostering the community that has become Chicago. We acknowledge all Native peoples who came before us and who continue to contribute to our City. We are committed to promoting Native cultural heritage.

Overview of Project Ideas

Project ideas can be anything from a physical artwork to a series of workshops/classes to a performance, happening or cultural event, focused on any artistic discipline including architecture, culinary arts, curatorial arts, dance, design, film, literary arts, media arts, music, performance art, photography, public art, social practice, theater, or visual arts.

Projects can be ongoing or new.

Projects must have these elements:

- Projects must have a primary goal to serve residents of a specific neighborhood or community.
- Projects must engage neighborhood residents as participants or audiences between October 1, 2023 and December 31, 2024.
- Lead applicant's primary residence/address must be in the neighborhood where this engagement will take place. This lead applicant can be an organization leading the project, or the lead artist, producer or curator for the project.

We welcome projects that:

- Are first-time collaborations between individuals or organizations.
- Are one-time activations or events – projects do not need to be permanent installations or art works.

We strongly encourage:

- Projects that are broadly accessible.
- Cross-industry collaborations.
- Artist-led projects that activate Chicago communities and institutions to address broader social issues, opportunities, and challenges.
- Projects that use art to inspire community organizing, civic engagement and participation.
- Projects that activate vacant or underutilized spaces.
- Projects that seek to celebrate and preserve the cultural traditions of underrepresented or historically marginalized groups.
- Projects that connect youth to arts programming.
- Projects that address public safety, equity, and access through art.
- Projects that recognize and illuminate the character defining attributes of Chicago's neighborhoods.
- Projects that increase dialogue, civic discourse, and exchange around Chicago's unique social issues.

- Applicants can request up to $50,000 regardless of their budget size.
- We anticipate making 10 – 40 grants through this program.

Review Process and Criteria

All proposals will be reviewed by an external grant review panel including residents of priority neighborhoods and multi-disciplinary arts experts. Consideration is given to creating review panels reflective of the city as a whole, including artistic expertise, race, gender, geographic knowledge of the city, and cultural understanding. A majority of the grant review panel will be BIPOC (Black, Indigenous and People of Color). This panel will select finalists to interview, participate in interviews, review full proposals and make final funding recommendations to DCASE.

Proposals will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

- Strength of proposed project: The proposed project possesses artistic merit and vision alongside quality, meaningful opportunities to engage neighborhood residents in arts and culture activities.
- Increasing Access: Project expands the scope of projects funded by the Cultural Grants Program by taking place within a priority neighborhood, activating vacant or underutilized spaces, and/or supporting historically disinvested neighborhoods and populations.
- Benefit to communities: The project's potential to benefit Chicago residents and impact communities through cultural programming intended for the greater good. We value both projects that have a wide and expansive reach and those that provide deep, enriching experiences for participants.
- Community experience: The applicant demonstrates a depth of experience, relationships and engagement with artists and partners in identified communities/neighborhoods. The applicant and its partners demonstrate experience working in, on behalf of, and leading communities; including outreach, strong listening skills and attention to detail.
