Re: Case No. [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

This letter is in response to your query concerning INDIVIDUAL A's [REDACTED] plan to attend a course sponsored by [REDACTED] on the [REDACTED] Program. The Board of Ethics has already issued an advisory opinion authorizing other City officials [REDACTED] to attend the course in Case No. 89111.A.

In your memo of August 25, 1989, you state that her attendance at the meeting is imperative, because she will need the information for the performance of her City duties.

[REDACTED] On the basis of the facts you have provided, [REDACTED] INDIVIDUAL A's situation appears to be indistinguishable from that of the other City officials who have been authorized to attend the course. Therefore, INDIVIDUAL A may attend the course, subject to the same restrictions as contained in Case No. 89111.A.

Sincerely,

Johnnie B. DeWilde
