14 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: The motion passes.

15 I will now call upon members of 16 the public who have signed up in advance to 17 speak. When your name is called, please step 18 up to the microphone.

19 Kit Brennen.

20 MS. BRENNEN: Hi. Good evening.

21 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Good evening.

22 MS. BRENNEN: As a Chicago resident and 23 taxpayer, I demand that Superintendent Johnson
24 fire Officer Rialmo, the killer of Quintonio

1 LeGrier and Bettie Jones.

2 On December 22nd, COPA found that 3 the act is unjustified in that a reasonable 4 officer would recognize there was no threat to 5 his life. And having killed two innocent
6 people isn't enough, Officer Rialmo is now
7 under investigation for assaulting two people 8 in a 3:00 a.m. bar fight on December 17th.

9 I demand that you fire Officer
10 Rialmo immediately so that not one more cent of 11 our taxpayer money goes to employing this 12 violent and unstable individual. Thank you.

13 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Thank you.

14 Michael Elliot. Next speaker,
15 Michael Elliot.

16 MR. ELLIOT: Yes. Good evening.

17 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Good evening.

18 MR. ELLIOT: So my question -- my statement
19 is about the ruling that was made by COP-A, 20 which you guys call COPA, on the 22nd of 21 December, where it was ruled that Officer
22 Rialmo had unjustly fired his pistol and killed 23 two Chicago residents, Quintonio LeGrier and 24 Bettie Jones, and that he lied about the

1 circumstances in which he fired his gun. He 2 claimed that they were much closer than what 3 the facts show how far the actual distance
4 of -- that he was from both of those innocent 5 victims. To claim that he was threatened, he 6 felt threatened, in imminent danger when he was 7 so many feet away from them, that you guys
8 recognized that and ruled that he unjustly 9 fired his pistol and killed those two innocent 10 people.

11 And then to make matters worse,
12 Officer Robert Rialmo has been paid over 13 $84,000 a year enjoying desk duty while the 14 families -- while these two families have 15 suffered immeasurably. Every day they suffer 16 at the loss of their loved ones.

17 And for this City to allow this 18 to continue to happen -- because it's not the 19 first time that it happened, it's not the first 20 time that a police officer has killed a black 21 person or black persons and was given a 22 vacation of desk duty.

23 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Mr. Elliot, your time
24 is up. Can you wrap up?

1 MR. ELLIOT: Okay. I'll wrap up.

2 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Thank you.

3 MR. ELLIOT: So we demand the firing of 4 Officer Rialmo.

5 If anyone is here representing 6 the Police Board -- I'm sorry, the Police
7 Department -- I think you are, sir. You need
8 to take the message back to the Superintendent, 9 because it's on his desk that he has until 10 March to fire this officer. And we expect him 11 to do that.

12 Do you have opinion about that?

13 CHIEF OF PATROL WALLER: I don't have an 14 opinion. I am not going to speak for the 15 Superintendent, but what I will say is that 16 that case will be judged on the facts, and the 17 Superintendent is looking at that case. It 18 will be judged on the facts and not in the 19 court of public opinion or any type of 20 political --

21 MR. ELLIOT: Okay. This Board ruled on it.
22 It wasn't a court of public opinion. And they 23 ruled he unjustly killed those two people.

24 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Let me clarify one

1 thing. Let me clarify one thing so the record 2 is clear. That matter is investigated by the 3 Civilian Office of Police Accountability. They 4 made a recommendation to the Superintendent.
5 The Superintendent has 90 days once he receives 6 it to make a determination. We're in that 7 period right now. This Police Board, that case 8 is not in front of us. No judgment on. We 9 don't have the facts. So I wanted to make sure 10 you and the public are clear about that.

11 Thank you for your comments.

12 MR. ELLIOT: Are you saying you guys won't 13 be ruling on it?

14 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: The case isn't in 15 front of us yet. The cases get investigated.
16 Serious cases go to the Superintendent for his 17 decision, and that case could or may not come 18 to us. But you said that the Board had ruled.
19 That case is not in front of this Board yet.

20 MR. ELLIOT: I misspoke on that. COPA
21 ruled on it. And you got to take that ruling
22 under consideration and fire Officer Rialmo 23 immediately.

24 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Thank you, sir.

1 Our next speaker is Pamela Hunt.

2 MS. HUNT: Good evening.

3 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Good evening.

4 MS. HUNT: I second what the young man
5 said, that that officer should be fired.

6 My concern for some of the new 7 board members, I am very upfront about and full 8 disclosure that I am saying that Rahm Emanuel 9 should resign. That I feel that he is not 10 capable of representing the entire City of 11 Chicago. And there are two Chicagos, one who 12 are subjected to the police brutality and the 13 other who gets police service to serve and 14 protect.

15 So my concern here today is still 16 dealing with the issue of racism and 17 discrimination.

18 I have not seen or heard any 19 policy or practice that is addressing the issue 20 of racism.

21 In addition, 1,000 new hirees,
22 officers, and I think statistics just came out 23 that there were only -- was it 14 or less than 24 20 percent hirees are black officers.

1 Now, the Be The Change campaign
2 was about trying to get more black officers
3 representative of the City so we could curtail 4 some of the discrimination, some of the police 5 brutality. That has not occurred.

6 I made a recommendation that 7 white officers -- there should be a moratorium 8 on the hiring of white officers, not because 9 I'm anti white officers, but because when you 10 look at the CPD force, it is predominantly 11 white, it is because there were policies of 12 discrimination and racism that caused that 13 force to be all white.

14 Now in the interest of honesty,
15 to remedy that, I understand you don't want 16 quotas and set-asides, but I don't know what 17 else to do, because it's not fair to have a 18 thousand positions and still have them
19 predominately occupied by white officers.

20 Lastly, I'm going to ask, in the 21 training, what is in the training that's 22 different? I'm concerned about the community
23 where the officers come from. If they coming 24 from Mount Greenwood, we had a racial incident

1 there. So I'm very concerned about that.

2 I've written, e-mailed
3 Superintendent Johnson. I still don't have 4 sufficient answers. It's about racism. And I 5 know it permeates all of our society.

6 But nonetheless, it is systemic 7 here in Chicago based on the U.S. DOJ report.

8 So I'm asking what is -- can 9 somebody from the CPD, anybody tell me what is 10 being done on the issue of racism?

11 Lastly, I'm going to bring it
12 down to Rahm's Jewish upbringing, his religion.
13 Ram wouldn't allow --

14 BOARD MEMBER FOREMAN: Excuse me, Ms. Hunt, 15 you are out of time.

16 MS. HUNT: Rahm wouldn't allow a Jewish 17 youth be shot down and not have it addressed.
18 He would bring in the Israeli Army and any 19 other army.

20 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Your time is up.

21 MS. HUNT: I understand. We want justice.
22 In 2018 we're still having to deal with this.
23 Thank you very much.

24 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Our next speaker is

1 Queen Sister. Queen Sister, are you here?

2 Our next speaker is Crista Noel.

3 Our next speaker is Trina

4 Townsend. Ms. Townsend.

5 MS. TOWNSEND: Good evening, everybody.

6 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Good evening.

7 MS. TOWNSEND: Madam President, I have a 8 statement that I would like to read in its 9 entirety if you will grant me that permission.

10 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Please go ahead.

11 MS. TOWNSEND: My name is Trina Townsend.
12 Growing up, most people knew me by my middle 13 name Kim or Eclipse.

14 From the age of 14 until I was 15 18, I was raped by a Chicago police officer
16 whose name is Kevin Glover.

17 Until I met Officer Kevin Glover,
18 I believed what my mother had always taught me, 19 that the police are nice, that the police help 20 people, to trust the police.

21 I even wanted to be a Chicago
22 police officer, just like Starsky and Hutch, 23 Charlie's Angels and the Mod Squad. I wanted
24 to serve and protect citizens of Chicago.

1 But in one day, the dreams of an 2 innocent child were stolen.

3 In late August of 1981, my life
4 changed forever. Right before the beginning of 5 my freshman year of high school at the age of 6 14, I decided to report that I was being 7 sexually molested by my father and had been 8 sexually assaulted by three guys earlier that 9 week.

10 Knowing Officer Glover from him
11 patrolling the neighborhood, I decided to flag 12 him down as he drove from around the corner in 13 his police car.

14 When Officer Glover stopped his 15 patrol car right off the corner of 45th and 16 LaPorte Avenue, I reported that I was being 17 molested by my dad inside of my home and had 18 been sexually assaulted by three of the guys 19 that resided on my block about a week prior.

20 When I told him what had been 21 happening, he assured me that he would take 22 care of the situation.

23 After a few days went by, I 24 didn't see Officer Glover. Then one evening as

1 I was walking, Officer Glover pulled up and 2 told me to get into his car. He even got out
3 and opened the door for me.

4 At first, I hesitated, thinking
5 about what my mother had always taught me, not 6 to get in the car with anyone.

7 When Officer Glover noticed that 8 I was reluctant to get into the car, he told me 9 he was taking me to the police station so I can 10 talk to his sergeant about what had happened to 11 me.

12 So I trusted him, and I got into 13 the car. I thought that I would be okay 14 because I was with a police officer.

15 After awhile, I noticed that we 16 were headed down 47th Street towards Pulaski.

17 Officer Glover turned left at 18 Kolin and 47th Street. When I asked where were 19 we going, he didn't answer. He just kept 20 driving.

21 Finally, we came to a stop. I 22 noticed that we were pulled over by what looked 23 like the back of a dock of an abandoned factory
24 by 45th and South Kolin.

1 When Officer Glover came around
2 to open the back passenger door on the right 3 side, he said, I've been waiting on you to get 4 a little older. I've been waiting for this 5 day. Now take off your pants.

6 At first I resisted and told 7 Officer Glover that I wasn't taking off my 8 pants. He became very agitated. That's when 9 he balled up his fist and made a gesture as if 10 he was about to punch me in the face. I 11 stopped resisting.

12 From that day, all the way to a 13 month before my 18th birthday, Officer Kevin 14 Glover, the 8th District, sexually assaulted me 15 on a near monthly basis.

16 He was always on duty. He was 17 always in the patrol car, always in uniform, 18 and he always took me to the same area near the 19 back docks on South Kolin and 45th Street.

20 By the summer of 1985, I couldn't 21 take it anymore. After my birthday in July, I 22 wasn't going to continue to allow Officer 23 Glover to sexually assault me anymore. I had 24 to refuse to get into his police car. Cop or

1 not. Uniform or not.

2 The last time that Officer Kevin
3 Glover raped me was in June of 1985, right 4 before my high school graduation.

5 Officer Glover appeared to be 6 angrier than usual that day. I just wanted him
7 to hurry up because I had made up in my mind 8 this was going to be the last time.

9 After he was done, his patrol car 10 wouldn't start up. I started laughing, which 11 appeared to have made him more angrier than 12 what he was.

13 It was hard being in the same
14 neighborhood that Officer Glover patrolled, 15 especially after the death of my twin brother, 16 Tim, in 1989 when we were only 21 years old.

17 A few times after my 18th
18 birthday, Officer Glover still tried to get me 19 to get into the police car, but I was older. I 20 learned how to be firm and resist.

21 Eventually, I had to move from my 22 parents' home just to get away from Officer 23 Glover.

24 Rather than be around him, I

1 turned to the streets. I got involved in 2 different situations that was not conducive for 3 me. I began using heroin and cocaine and 4 became homeless, living in abandoned buildings, 5 garages, cars, parks, and even on the trains 6 and buses.

7 It was even times that I had to 8 eat out of the garbage cans, but it was either 9 that or Glover. It's been 17 years since my 10 life has changed for the better.

11 I'm a mother of two young adults
12 and a grandmother of a five-year-old.

13 In April of 2002, I began working 14 in the social service field, helping people who 15 want to build a better life for themselves.

16 It wasn't long after that that I 17 decided to enroll in college to further my 18 education.

19 For years I felt like it was my 20 fault if Officer Glover was still sexually 21 assaulting young girls and women because I was 22 too afraid to speak up.

23 After running into one of his 24 former partners whose name is Gary this past

1 August, engaging in general conversation with 2 him, he informed me that Officer Glover was not 3 a partner that he wanted to work with, because 4 he noticed that he was having sexual relations
5 with young females. I decided at that point
6 that I needed to come forward and not be afraid 7 anymore of Officer Glover and tell my story of 8 the trauma, pain and suffering I endured as a 9 teenager. However, it wasn't until recently 10 when I believe my youngest daughter was in 11 jeopardy after she was approached by an officer 12 that apparently knew me. Then I decided to 13 come forth and tell my story.

14 Although I am an adult, the 15 horrible memories of being sexually assaulted 16 by Officer Kevin Glover has caused me to 17 develop post-traumatic stress disorder, PTSD.

18 I would like to ask all young 19 women and adult women who were sexually 20 assaulted by Officer Kevin Glover, or any other 21 officers, to have the courage to come forward 22 and tell their stories, just like I did. I am 23 me, too, police, too. Thank you.

24 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Ms. Townsend, I have

1 a question for you. I appreciate you sharing 2 your story. I imagine it's very difficult for 3 you to do. Have you filed a complaint with 4 COPA or the Police Department or otherwise
5 filed a complaint with the State's Attorney's 6 Office? Because you've made very serious 7 allegations that I think warrant an 8 investigation.

9 MS. TOWNSEND: No, I haven't, not at this 10 point in time.

11 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: What I'm going to ask
12 you to do, Chief Eddie Welch, who's the chief 13 of the Bureau of Internal Affairs, is here. We 14 have Judge Banks, who's the acting head of 15 COPA. I would ask you to meet with them so 16 that a formal complaint can be initiated, 17 allegations can be investigated.

18 MS. TOWNSEND: Thank you.

19 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Final speaker is 20 Robert More. Mr. More, are you here?

21 MR. MORE: Yeah. After hearing the -- this 22 is Robert J. More, 18th day of January of 2018.
23 This is the proponent of the enslaved 24 (inaudible) apparatus upon the occident and

1 presently the progress being dismantled
2 hopefully (inaudible) City of Chicago Police
3 Department. Acknowledging the 7th or 8th 4 column again and again.

5 And after hearing these just 6 dreadful horror stories, I just, first of all, 7 need to thank Michael the Archangel, and 8 whatever paramilitary assistance might be 9 necessary to get these things corrected to any 10 victim.

11 I have an immediate problem right 12 now. The nominal statute of limitation which 13 addresses a lot these systemic problems. I got 14 to read this because I got to make a demand.
15 This is heading to the Federal Grand Jury, the 16 whole rapport, then the alternative remedies of 17 Magna Carta Clause 51, which are still 18 incorporated to the Constitution, which has 19 been proven clearly by Bundy & Associates the 20 last two weeks, her case dismissed, so the 21 government -- conditions are no longer certain, 22 because the more and more people realize that 23 the activity of the government is not generally 24 ordered to the accomodation of the general

1 alliance, it is generally ordered to 2 deprivation and fraud of the general alliance.

3 But I have to share a copy of 4 this document. Document is back there. I am 5 going to the assistant superintendent, because 6 I have to bind everyone up the chain of 7 command, because what's happening here is the 8 evidentiary to the threshold -- identify a 9 threshold -- identifiable threshold for 10 evidence for constitutional deprivation and 11 other things are not activities in compliance 12 with that. So I got to go with the chain of 13 command (inaudible.)

14 Right now I got criminal charges
15 instituted on a nominal statute of limitations 16 by Monday and Tuesday respectfully. And the 17 standard that you need to direct evidence to, 18 including criminal charges, is entirely
19 compatible and promulgates Supreme Court
20 authority that's controlling in this area.
21 Circumstantial evidence is sufficient to 22 institute criminal charges and procure 23 convictions.

24 So I've been going around and

1 around now. I got to present this document.

2 This is all part of the YouTube video.

3 BOARD MEMBER FOREMAN: Thank you, Mr. More.

4 MR. MORE: Please provide me the process so
5 I can bind the Superintendent or assistant, 6 provide them with the presentation of that 7 document at this juncture.

8 My time is up, right?

9 BOARD MEMBER FOREMAN: Yes.

10 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Ms. Valente, do you
11 want to speak with Mr. More, please?

12 MS. VALENTE: Yes.

13 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Ms. Noel. I
14 apologize, our last speaker will be Ms. Noel.

15 MS. NOEL: Good evening, everyone. How are 16 you?

17 First of all, I think what Trina
18 did today actually hurts. And I'm not supposed 19 to be the one that's upset about this, right?
20 Because it didn't happen to me, but it did. It 21 did. And it's happening to women all over 22 Chicago. All over the nation. They are 23 getting raped by police officers and nothing is 24 happening.

1 And the main reason why is 2 because the investigations are in the 3 department. You cannot investigate your own
4 people. You have to take it out.

5 I'm asking you, Patricia, and I
6 know this is the first time we met, that you do 7 everything in your power to take sexual assault 8 and harassment and abuse away from the police 9 department. It does not belong here. It is an 10 issue about women, and it should be handled by 11 women who have the wherewithal and the 12 understanding of women.

13 Do you know that 92 percent of 14 women who say they've been sexually assaulted 15 have been sexually assaulted? It has happened.

16 So for Trina to stand up here, a 17 mother, she stood up here. This was a long 18 time ago, and she just got the courage to do 19 this. She just got the courage to do this. So 20 I mean the police, too, the cops, too, 21 movement. I want a woman here every month 22 telling you all that she's been sexually 23 assaulted by a police officer, because you know 24 what? You should never, ever, ever sexually

1 assault a woman as a police officer. There are 2 a lot of things that you all can get away with.
3 But that ain't one. Harassment, that ain't 4 one. Abuse, it ain't one. Anybody within this 5 force. This guy named Gary who knew Glover was 6 doing this, all these police officers, I know 7 some of them know this is happening. Okay?
8 This is a cover-up. These are cover-ups. So I 9 want that to end. I'm done with that.

10 And I just got something to say
11 about Bettie. Okay? Rialmo wants $10 million 12 for killing two people. And then he said it's 13 because of his training. That boy was in the 14 military. His military training didn't teach 15 him how not to shoot civilians. Okay? Let me 16 tell you something. I understand bats are 17 pretty dangerous. I got you. You got a 18 17-year-old boy with a bat, you can tackle him.
19 Because I ain't never seen anybody beat nobody 20 to death while they laying on their back.

21 So this guy needs to go. He 22 needs to go now. I don't want him. We don't 23 want him. Nobody wants him on the police 24 force. You do not get to kill two people and 1 then ask for $10 million.

2 PRESIDENT LIGHTFOOT: Thank, Ms. Noel.
