Subject: FW: NACTO Conference

Hi Steve,

I've returned from the NACTO conference last week in Boston. I went in my official capacity as CDOT Commissioner along with CDOT staff including Kevin O'Malley, Jamie Simone, Vig Krishnamurthy, Dave Smith, and Mary Nicol. I had been invited by NACTO to attend and lecture at the conference. As I currently serve as an officer on the Board, NACTO waived my conference registration fee. The City of Chicago covered my hotel cost and airfare. I did not accept any honoraria or swag.

Please let me know if you need any additional information.

Best,

Gia Biagi
Commissioner
Department of Transportation
