STATEMENT FROM MAYOR EMANUEL ON THE PASSING OF ROBERT STEELE

Robert Steele was a passionate and committed Chicagoan who dedicated his life to public service and strengthening communities. From his tenure as Community Outreach Manager of the Chicago Park District to his time as a Cook County Commissioner, Robert was a proven advocate for the city's health services. While he hailed from North Lawndale, Robert was deeply devoted to Chicago's West and South Sides. Amy and I join with all Chicagoans in mourning his loss and extend our deepest condolences to the Steele family on this difficult day.
