Dear Mr. Berlin,

I am writing to you per the instruction of your staff member, Ms. Ana Collazo in regard to a gift that I received and self-reported to the Board of Ethics via telephone conversations with Ms. Collazo.

I am sending a check for $75.00 (#1172) to System Development Integration, LLC as reimbursement for the cost of a ticket to the 52nd Annual Police Recognition Ceremony & Luncheon. According to Ms. Collazo, it was a violation of the ethics doctrine of the City of Chicago for me to have accepted the lunch ticket since it exceeded $50.00. This finding came regardless of the fact that the actual cost of the lunch has been determined by the sponsoring agency—Chicago Police Memorial Foundation (CPMF)—to be $40.00 and that $35.00 was a contribution to the CPMF.

Sincerely,
Greg Kedzior
