MEETING
February 24, 2022

1 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Good evening,
2 everyone. My name is Ghian Foreman, President of 3 the Police Board, and I am calling the Board's 4 February 24th public meeting to order.

5 In order to protect the public's
6 health in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, this 7 meeting is taking place remotely.

8 Pursuant to the Illinois Open
9 Meetings Act, I have determined that holding this 10 meeting in person is not practical nor prudent.

11 The City of Chicago remains subject
12 to the Governor's disaster proclamation due to 13 the COVID-19 pandemic and the disease continues 14 to be a threat, especially to the unvaccinated 15 and people with certain health conditions. We 16 are therefore having this meeting remotely this 17 month.

18 This meeting is open to the public
19 via audio and video conference and is being 20 carried live by CAN-TV.

21 Members of the public are on mute
22 in order to reduce background noise and 23 disruptions.

24 We have a court reporter making a

1 transcript of this meeting.

2 In addition to the Police Board
3 members, we have several City officials here with 4 us this evening. I will begin by taking 5 attendance so it is clear who is participating in 24 The Open Meetings Act, has considered in a closed

13 action on this evening will be entered as of 14 today's date, sent to the parties, and posted on 15 the Board's website within five days.

16 That was a lot. Next up we have 17 the First Deputy who is going to provide the 18 Superintendent's report. First Deputy. First 19 Deputy, you're on mute.

20 FIRST DEPUTY CARTER: I said so much
21 important stuff, it's not worth repeating.

22 Thank you. Good evening, everyone.
23 Let me start by thanking all the members of the 24 Chicago Police Board and Chicago residents. It

1 is all of your efforts combined that make a
2 difference for the Chicago Police Department in 3 serving and protecting Chicagoans and visitors
4 every day.

5 As you know, public safety is about 6 more than protecting and securing the public way.
7 It's about the personal sense of security in our 8 lives.

9 We shouldn't have to think twice 10 about relaxing in our homes or driving around in 11 our cars or shopping in our communities. These 12 are the reasons why the Chicago Police
13 Department's multi-prong public safety mission 14 has been one rooted in collaboration.

15 Throughout last year and since the 16 beginning of this year, we have maintained a 17 precision focus on taking down gang and narcotic 18 criminal networks driving violence in our city.

19 The Department has cultivated 20 successful partnerships at the county, state, and 21 federal level as we zero in on vehicular 22 hijacking, organized retail theft, and guns, and 23 gangs.

24 Our joint vehicular task force is

1 comprised of more than two dozen law enforcement
2 agencies across the Chicagoland area. Together
3 we conduct vital missions to combat vehicular 4 hijacking, deploy resources on the ground and in 5 the sky.

6 We held a mission last week and 7 will host another this week. We don't want to 8 keep pace with last year, but we want to set a 9 new pace for this year.

10 In the vehicular hijacking
11 missions we've led since the beginning of the 12 year, we've already made 18 arrests, seized seven 13 handguns, and recovered 27 vehicles.

14 All of last year we carried out 14
15 total operations which yielded 95 arrests, 25
16 firearms recovered, and 136 vehicles recovered.

17 We are curbing vehicle hijacking.
18 This time last year, the City had 325 carjacking
19 incidents. Today, as of 24 February, we've seen 20 287 since the beginning of the year. That's 21 almost a 12 percent decrease.

22 We're also seeing progress as we 23 address retail theft. The Department's working 24 together with retailers and small business owners

1 and building key relationships.

2 We know that theft is never a
3 victimless crime. It impacts the bottom line of 4 our countless businesses, the overall economy of 5 our City, and residents' and visitors' sense of 6 well-being when patronizing establishments.

7 That's also why we are glad to join 8 the Illinois Attorney General's organized retail
9 crime task force in 2021. The first statewide 10 public/private collaboration of its kind. The 11 task force builds on CPD's ongoing efforts with 12 local merchants while connecting us to important 13 tools to stop criminals in their tracks.

14 Using pod video and other 15 resources, we've brought several offenders to 16 justice in January and February of this year, 17 including one of the individuals that was 18 responsible for stealing watches valued at more 19 than $1 million late last year.

20 We also apprehended a young adult 21 who targeted major retailers in the string of 22 smash-and-grab-style robberies, resulting in 23 $10,000 stolen merchandise from Ulta and Sephora
24 beauty supplies.

1 Working with the Illinois Attorney
2 General's Office, we also made arrests in the 3 comprehensive investigation into a large cargo 4 theft operation.

5 Chicago Police Department is 6 applying the same level of collaboration with our 7 city and federal partners as we combat guns and 8 gangs in Chicago.

9 We continue working with all City
10 Departments to address public safety as a public 11 health issue because that's what it is.

12 It is up to all of us to address
13 the root causes driving violence and provide 14 resources for our youth, as well as hard-working 15 families. And while we work to that end, our 16 officers are working tirelessly to keep our 17 streets safe and hold offenders responsible.

18 We aren't letting up and we hope
19 that you don't either.

20 Chicago Police Department's gun
21 investigations team works besides federal 22 agencies to put an end to gun violence and gun 23 trafficking.

24 So far this year, we've seized more

1 than 1400 guns. That's 1,457 in total. With 651
2 this month alone. That's up from 466 at the same
3 time in February of last year.

4 In every example I've shared,
5 collaboration has been the common denominator in 6 the strides we made. It's why we remain 7 committed to visibility, engagement,
8 collaboration, and it's how we will improve this 9 Department and impact this City.

10 Thank you. And I'll turn it back
11 to you, Mr. Chairman.

12 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Thank you, First Deputy.
13 Each month prior to the Police Board meeting, I
14 typically have an opportunity to make sure I 15 check in with the Superintendent and with the 16 First Deputy. So I shared something with them
17 today, and I wanted to make sure that I share it 18 with everyone attending the meeting.

19 So, you know, in my travels
20 throughout the City, you know, community meetings 21 and that kind of thing, I'm often approached by 22 community members. And it's a hard time kind of 23 for everybody in the City right now. And, you 24 know, we all read the newspapers and we hear the

1 criticism about the police. But more often, I 2 get community members talking about the fact that 3 the police are doing a good job in their 4 community. Right? They're not saying it's 5 perfect and that everything is fixed, but they 6 are thankful for the work that the Police
7 Department is doing. And so I know, CPD, you 8 guys hear all of the criticism and never get to 9 hear the thank-yous. Not never get to hear the 10 thank-yous, but not often publicly get to hear 11 the thank-yous.

12 I wanted to relay that to you, that 13 the message does come to me. I hear the 14 complaints, too. But I wanted to ensure that I
15 passed along that, you know, the community
16 members, I also hear a lot of thank-yous and get 17 a chance to hear about the good work that you all 18 were doing.

19 So, please, you know, on behalf of 20 the residents who have passed it along to me, I
21 want to share that with you all. And please 22 share that with the members of the Department.

23 FIRST DEPUTY CARTER: Certainly will. Thank 24 you and appreciate it.

1 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Thank you. Next up, Jay
2 Westensee.

3 ACTING CHIEF ADMINISTRATOR WESTENSEE: Hello
4 and thank you, President Foreman. My name is Jay
5 Westensee, and I am a Deputy Chief Administrator
6 with COPA. I am grateful to be here with you
7 this evening. I will be standing in for Chief 8 Administrator Andrea Kersten who sends her
9 regrets as she will be unable to join us.

10 Before turning to COPA
11 investigative statistics for the month of 12 January, I think it's important to draw attention 13 to yesterday's City Council meeting, during which 14 City Council formally confirmed Andrea Kersten as 15 COPA's Chief Administrator.

16 Under Andrea's leadership in the 17 role of interim, the agency has continued to make 18 considerable gains in its Consent Decree 19 compliance efforts, address challenges related to 20 investigative efficiencies, and find effective 21 ways in which to engage and bring awareness in 22 the community regarding COPA's vital role
23 relative to police accountability and the overall 24 public safety system.

1 COPA is approaching its five-year
2 anniversary in September. But we look back with 3 pride on the progress the agency has made during 4 its short existence. Our focus is on enhancing 5 agency stability and trust in the years to come.
6 Specifically, COPA intends to increase focus on 7 identifying and acting on opportunities to engage 8 other City departments, staff, and resources, and 9 data to further the City of Chicago's coordinated 10 efforts to build safer communities.

11 With that, I'll turn to COPA's
12 numbers for the month of January.

13 In January, COPA received 365
14 complaints and notifications. Of that total, 15 COPA retained 103 under its jurisdiction.

16 Of the misconduct allegations
17 within those complaints made against Chicago
18 Police Department members, 61 percent concerned
19 issues related to improper searches and seizures.
20 As has been reported during prior to Police Board
21 meetings, Fourth Amendment-related allegations
22 remain COPA's highest category of complaints.

23 COPA also received and responded to 24 two officer-involved shooting notifications. The

1 agency also concluded four officer-involved
2 shooting investigations during the month of 3 January.

4 Regarding COPA investigations,
5 overall they concluded with findings in January.
6 53 percent of all cases closed had at least one 7 sustained allegation of misconduct. That 8 percentage mirrors the rate during the same 9 period last year.

10 Regarding revised COPA policies 11 that address agency requirements under the 12 Consent Decree, 16 finalized policies largely 13 addressing investigative operations, which are 14 crucial to COPA's compliance efforts, are 15 available on our website.

16 In the coming weeks, we expect to 17 have additional draft policies posted and 18 available for public comment and review.

19 On February 15th, COPA finalized
20 the agency's 2021 annual report. Some highlights
21 from that report include discussion on COPA's 22 plans to launch its civilian COPA academy in 23 2022, discussion on COPA's plans to install a new 24 video release and transparency unit. This unit

1 will include eight new staff positions within 2 COPA that will manage the volume of requests for 3 materials under the Freedom of Information Act by 4 media and members of the public, while also 5 fulfilling other requests for material -- for 6 materials in accordance with City policy and 7 executive orders responsibly.

8 The report also contains summaries
9 on closure on a number of significant major-case 10 incidents of great public interest, including the 11 incident involving Ms. Nikkita Brown on North 12 Avenue Beach, an off-duty shooting incident by a 13 CPD officer in Evergreen Park, and the on-duty
14 foot pursuit and fatal officer-involved shooting
15 incident involving Anthony Alvarez.

16 Additionally, the report includes
17 details regarding COPA's efforts to achieve 72
18 percent compliance of its Consent Decree
19 stipulated requirements by the close of the year.

20 Encourage those interested in 21 additional detail regarding COPA's community 22 engagement efforts, complaint intake, and 23 investigative outcome data, policy and research
24 work, and training and professional development

1 efforts to visit our website to view the full 2 report. Thank you very much.

3 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Thank you. Just a quick 4 question. A little bit less than a third of the 5 complaints that you guys get that you retained, 6 it falls under your jurisdiction, and then 60
7 percent of those are Fourth Amendment. Really, 8 this is maybe a question for First Deputy.

9 Obviously this is a challenging issue. What kind
10 of training or what is taking place in CPD, you 11 know, to see that we don't continue to see these 12 numbers in the same rate?

13 FIRST DEPUTY CARTER: Right now we've 14 revamped our training. Obviously we've given 15 officers 40 hours of training per year now. So 16 with the de-escalation training, which is a key 17 factor, that's one of the components of the 18 40-hour training. But we're also sending 19 officers back through First Amendment and Fourth 20 Amendment training. That is critical to try and 21 stem some of the offset, as COPA mentioned, for 22 Fourth Amendment violations or perceived Fourth
23 Amendment violations.

24 So we've also partnered with the

1 Cook County State's Attorney's Office to help in 2 presenting some of that training to our officers.
3 So Kim Fox's office, the State's Attorney's 4 Office has graciously agreed to allow her State's 5 Attorneys to come in and produce that training 6 throughout the city. So we're in the process of 7 scheduling that right now.

8 So we're doing a lot of different
9 things to help mitigate and educate our officers 10 to better serve the public through that.

11 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Thank you.

12 VICE PRESIDENT WOLFF: As a quick follow-up 13 to that. Have you set a goal in terms of the 14 percentage reduction for the next year?

15 FIRST DEPUTY CARTER: We're looking at that 16 to see for the training -- how quickly we can get 17 the training out before the goal. We won't know 18 whether or not we're able to reach the entire 19 Department as swiftly. So it depends on how 20 quickly we can reach the entire Department to be 21 able to calculate that goal. But we're looking 22 into that as well.

23 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Thank you.

24 ACTING CHIEF ADMINISTRATOR WESTENSEE:

1 President Foreman, I'd like to add the Department 2 regarding its constitutional policing module has 3 reached out to COPA and its policy and research 4 division here, and we have provided feedback on 5 their training module from COPA's perspective on 6 what we are seeing in terms of trends and issues
7 in our Fourth Amendment-related complaints.

8 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Great. We look forward
9 to some continued improvement in these places.
10 And we know that there's a lot of opportunities 11 for improvement. So glad to see that that 12 communication is taking place and that the 13 training is ongoing. Thank you.

14 For the past several months, each
15 month we tried to bring a speaker to educate 16 members of the public on different -- a variety
17 of subjects regarding public safety. This month
18 I'm honored to be the speaker.

19 So I usually come here wearing my 20 hat as the Police Board president. My daytime 21 job, I'm the president and CEO of an organization 22 called Emerald South. And we're focused on the 23 southeast side of the City, thinking about 24 economic development. And we're working on a

1 program. And I'm going to share a little bit 2 about that today.

3 So the program is called Terra
4 Firma, and it's a five-year, $25 million 5 initiative to clean, green, beautify, maintain,
6 and activate over 200 acres of vacant land 7 primarily in the Washington Park, Woodlawn, and 8 South Shore communities. To put this in 9 perspective, 200 acres is the size of Disney
10 Land.

11 This program was based on a program
12 in Philadelphia called Philadelphia Land Care.
13 When they did this, you could see a before and 14 after where they basically cleaned and beautified 15 some of the vacant lands.

16 Some of the results, including gun
17 violence in these areas, were reduced by 29
18 percent. A sense of mental health and well-being 19 were reduced by 69 percent. There were 20 employment and entrepreneurship opportunities, as 21 well as about ten percent of the sites were 22 turned to new uses.

23 So some of the anticipated outcomes
24 that we're anticipating are mental health,

1 physical health, reduced crime, increased land 2 value, improved walkability, and environmental 3 resiliency.

4 We have some great partners.
5 Companies like Green Corps and Sunshine
6 Enterprises. Funding partners like ICJIA and 7 Citibank. So we're thinking about adult 8 workforce, entrepreneurship training, youth 9 workforce, art and activation, and things like 10 maintaining maintenance of the vacant lots.

11 So some of the things we were able 12 to do last year in 2021, employed seven adult 13 trainees and 44 youth trainees in green industry
14 training. This year we plan to train another 40 15 individuals, 20 youth and 20 young people.

16 We were able to improve 27 acres of 17 vacant land, both city and private land. This 18 year we plan on maintaining the original 20 acres 19 that we worked on, plus an additional 20 acres.

20 We held six community events in 21 Bronzeville, Washington Park, Woodlawn, and South
22 Shore. We're hoping to continue that training 23 for this year. We worked with four local 24 minority-owned companies. Gave them over

1 $400,000 in contracts. So we're hoping to 2 continue that.

3 We engaged community parks. So 4 with COVID, a lot of people, they were in the 5 house, and so we were able to work with 15
6 community gardens, either by providing labor, or 7 materials, or, you know, sometimes just getting 8 out and encouraging the community to get the 9 garden started again, many of which, because of 10 COVID, went fallow.

11 One of our partners is Green Corps, 12 so we were able to work with 13 of their previous 13 trainees and get them re-engaged. And this year 14 we hope to work with another 20.

15 So the area that we worked in 16 was -- primarily we looked at our commercial
17 corridor, so 63rd Street and then along King 18 Drive. So we were able to do 27 acres.

19 This year we're going to expand
20 that 63rd Street corridor, as well as expand
21 west. And then by year three we would like to go 22 all the way to 67th Street. So this is kind of 23 the area that we're covering.

24 Again, one of our thoughts is that

1 we are able to kind of mimic some of those 2 results that Philadelphia got; that we could have 3 that same kind of results here.

4 So our objective is to really kind
5 of say, How can we take a model and scale it up?
6 So we took a look at the City of Chicago in the 7 violent crime areas. This is a heat map. As you 8 will see, red is kind of the most crimes, where 9 you see violent crimes. The yellow is also. And 10 then green also is where there is less crime. So 11 we overlaid that with the vacant lots.

12 So the way that we looked at this,
13 there's 10,000 parcels of City-owned vacant land.
14 About 1300 acres. 1.5 times the size of Central 15 Park. The communities with the most vacant lots
16 are Garfield Park, West Garfield Park, Lawndale, 17 Back of the Yards, Englewood, West Englewood, 18 Grand Boulevard, and Washington Park.

19 So it's our hope that as we do 20 things like this, we can get an opportunity to 21 work hand in hand with CPD, hand in hand with 22 other community organizations.

23 So the work we've been doing so far 24 is in the 2nd and 3rd Districts. I had an

1 opportunity to present to the 3rd District.
2 Every Friday they have a group of community
3 members that meets with the CAPS team there. And 4 so some people like the fencing that we put up, 5 some people don't like the fencing. But I think 6 that all in all, people appreciate the effort 7 that we're making. And so this is a model that 8 we're looking at.

9 I know I've been speaking with 10 Reverend Eaddy about potentially modeling this on 11 the west side and some of the areas around his 12 church.

13 So we would be more than willing to 14 kind of share what we're learning with some of 15 the other community groups around the City,
16 working closely with the CPD in some of the areas 17 where you all have some trouble spots, working 18 with Streets and Sanitation.

19 You know, it's my belief that it's 20 not just on CPD to solve our issues of public 21 safety. Right? It's on all of us. So this is 22 one little effort that we're making. We have 23 some data. The study was done by University of 24 Pennsylvania. So we want to work with some

1 universities here in Chicago to try to see what 2 efforts we can put in place and, you know, put 3 our own little Chicago mild sauce on it to make 4 it work for us.

5 So if there's anybody who wants any 6 more information about this, I welcome the 7 opportunity to speak to you about it. Thank you.

8 VICE PRESIDENT WOLFF: On behalf of the 9 President of the Police Board, who is too modest 10 to do it, it was a very smart selection to have 11 him speak tonight. And congratulations on a 12 great project.

13 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Thank you. Thank you
14 very much.

15 BOARD MEMBER EADDY: You are to be 16 commended, Mr. President, phenomenal work, 17 touching all of the very significant areas of our 18 City that requires all of the attention you gave 19 it. So you are to be commended.

20 BOARD MEMBER MONTES: Ghian, the funding
21 comes from those companies that you mentioned
22 or -- the $25 million? Or where does that come 23 from?

24 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Yeah, so our biggest

1 funder right now is ICJIA. ICJIA had an RFP for 2 a program called R-3, and that's the funding that 3 came from the marijuana tax. And so that funding 4 is really to think about how to improve these 5 communities that were really most impacted by the 6 war on drugs. So that's our biggest funder. We 7 also got funding from Chicago Community Trust, 8 Citibank.

9 And so part of the reason why you
10 saw the pictures is because I can tell people 11 what the idea is, but when people see the actual 12 people that are working, the lives, capturing the 13 stories of the neighbors. That neighborhood's
14 been cutting that vacant lot for the last 15
15 years. We're hoping that we can go out and reach 16 out to some of our corporate partners. Some of 17 those partners on Michigan Avenue as the First 18 Deputy was talking about, right? To be able to 19 show them the kind of impact that we can have on 20 our community.

21 So our plan is to raise $7 and a
22 half million for this year. Next year the goal 23 about another $10 million. But all in all we 24 want to raise $25 million.

1 We are working closely with the 2 Obama Foundation. It's introducing us to some 3 corporate partners. If we have any corporate 4 partners watching CAN-TV, I would welcome the 5 opportunity to present this plan to you.

6 But, again, we're only looking at a
7 couple of neighborhoods right now. And this a 8 challenge for our whole city. So it's a -- it's 9 the first couple of steps we are taking right 10 now. But we had a really good meeting today and 11 hopefully have another big partner coming on next 12 week. Thank you.

13 I will now call upon members of the 14 public who signed up in advance to speak. To 15 make sure that we have time to hear from all 16 speakers, there is a two-minute limit on 17 comments.

18 Our first speaker, Da'Jae Allen.
19 Da'Jae.

20 MS. ALLEN: My name is Da'Jae. And I'm part
21 of the Chicago Youth Council for Police
22 Accountability. Thank you for having me tonight.

23 And I want to give a report on some 24 of the things we've been doing. First, we have

1 been interviewing police officers around the City
2 stationed at schools and colleges. And we're 3 hoping to kind of step that up and maybe get some 4 videos of it and start a social media campaign 5 with that.

6 Our council has also met with 7 Chicago's Crime Lab and we have been discussing 8 ideas and projects, and we are working on getting 9 it on the ground and running.

10 We have also been conducting 11 community outreach for our panels here. That 12 will be happening in a couple of months. It will 13 include youth members, youth leaders, community
14 members, community leaders, police officers, 15 police leaders, as well as City members of the 16 City leaders. The goal for this panel is to 17 create a community between police and youth to 18 reduce overall tension within both communities.
19 And we also want to work on inviting members of 20 the Police Board to possibly be involved in the 21 panel series, whether that's as panelists 22 themselves or just there to network and 23 communicate and share ideas. That's it. Thank 24 you.

1 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Wonderful. Thank you
2 very much. And we really appreciate you all's 3 continued support of the Police Board and your 4 activity. You all are future Police Board
5 members. So we want to make sure that you all 6 continue to learn this process and stay active 7 and stay involved. So, absolutely, when you all 8 have events, you can count on us to participate 9 for sure.

10 Our next speaker is Crista Noel.
11 Ms. Noel.

12 MS. NOEL: Hello.

13 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Good evening.

14 MS. NOEL: Good evening, everyone. Okay.
15 So I'm going to be really quick. I came on late,
16 so I'm not sure if the follow-up with the Nikkita 17 Brown case decision was made but haven't gotten 18 any information on that. Don't know what's going 19 on. So need an answer as far as that's 20 concerned.

21 Two, there is a serious issue with 22 in-custody deaths within the Chicago Police 23 Department, averaging about two per year. I have 24 a serious problem with the treatment of veteran

1 Irene Chavez, and another serious problem about 2 the lack of information around what happened to 3 London Marquez, and why a pregnant woman would 4 end up dead.

5 And then three, we have FOIA'd
6 information on sexual assault, and offenses, and 7 misconduct, whatever falls under misconduct, and 8 we haven't really gotten an explanation of the 9 information that we got. We're trying to meet 10 with the Superintendent to get an explanation of 11 all these three points that I've made.

12 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Thank you. First 13 Deputy, I know you probably cannot speak about 14 some of these, but do you have any -- maybe it's 15 Jay, if you have any update on Nikkita Brown.

16 FIRST DEPUTY CARTER: No, I don't have an 17 update. But, Jay?

18 ACTING CHIEF ADMINISTRATOR WESTENSEE: No.
19 I can simply reiterate that I believe we closed
20 our investigation here at COPA on or about 21 October 25th, and it's been in the 22 post-investigation review process since that 23 time.

24 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: And as far as FOIA, is a

1 little bit of kind of a challenging kind of 2 issue. We deal with it kind of regularly.

3 First Deputy, is it Dana that they 4 should reach out to or Scott?

5 ASSISTANT GENERAL COUNSEL SPEARS: Good
6 evening, President Foreman. I can address this.
7 We're going to have our commanding office of the 8 FOIA issue reach out to Ms. Noel to discuss the 9 FOIA response.

10 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Okay. Thank you very 11 much.

12 MS. NOEL: Am I still on?

13 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Yes, ma'am.

14 MS. NOEL: He did. And I told him that I
15 wanted to meet with the Superintendent as well,
16 and I hadn't heard anything from him since I made 17 that request.

18 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Max, if I can ask you to 19 coordinate with CPD and the commander from the 20 FOIA department to make sure Ms. Noel gets the 21 answers that she's looking for.

22 MR. CAPRONI: I will do that. Thank you.

23 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Thank you. Our final 24 speaker, Mr. Robert More.

1 Max, what does Mr. More need to 2 press in order to unmute?

3 MR. CAPRONI: Callers press *6 to unmute.

4 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Mr. More, *6, please, on 5 one of your phones.

6 Mr. More, I can see that you're 7 there. *6 on one of your phones. Mr. More, if 8 you can hear me, if you can press *6, please.
9 Mr. More. Mr. More.

10 So, unfortunately, Mr. More is 11 having technical difficulties. Unfortunately we 12 are going to have to move on.

13 At this time, all members of the 14 public who signed up in advance to speak have 15 been called upon.

16 Is there a motion to adjourn?

17 VICE PRESIDENT WOLFF: So moved. Paula 18 Wolff.

19 BOARD MEMBER EADDY: Second. Michael Eaddy.

20 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: All in favor, please say 21 aye.

22 (CHORUS OF AYES.)

23 PRESIDENT FOREMAN: Motion passes. And the 24 meeting is adjourned.

1 Thank you very much. Mr. More, is 2 that you that just unmuted? No.

3 At this point the motion passes and 4 the meeting is adjourned. Thank you very much.
5 Be safe, everyone.

6 (WHEREUPON, the proceedings
7 were adjourned at 8:24 p.m.)
