DISCLAIMER

Nothing in the City of Chicago's Personnel Rules is intended to create any property interests in any job or position for any employee. The City of Chicago recognizes that employees with career service status or rights under a collective bargaining agreement may have due process rights under the existing law; however, the City of Chicago Personnel Rules are not intended to create such property rights.

The City of Chicago Personnel Rules are meant as a guide to the current policies and procedures used by the City of Chicago with respect to its employees and are subject to change by the City of Chicago unilaterally and at any time. The City of Chicago does not intend that its Personnel Rules, whether provided to employees at the time of employment, after commencement of employment, or at any other time, or through any manner of dissemination, constitute part of any offer of employment or are otherwise the basis for the formation of any contract, whether expressed or implied. These Rules should not be interpreted expressly or by implication as evidence of the existence of an employment contract between the City of Chicago and any employee.

The City of Chicago Personnel Rules may be applied to employees who are either at-will or career service employees unless the language in a particular Rule specifically states that it only applies to career service employees. Career service employees and/or those covered by collective bargaining agreements have no right to continued employment based on the city's Personnel Rules but may have such rights as are granted under the applicable laws or collective bargaining agreements.

Nothing in the City of Chicago Personnel Rules is intended to change the status of an at-will employee. Any at-will employee may be discharged without notice, for any reason or no reason, and an at-will employee has no expectation of continued service.

RULE I - OVERVIEW OF THE POSITION CLASSIFICATION PLAN

The Position Classification plan provides a framework for the City's Human Resource management objectives. The plan implements a system of job evaluation for classifying jobs or positions, and helps to facilitate other HR functions such as recruitment and selection, pay structuring, training and development, performance evaluation and organizational and workforce planning.

Section 1 - Definitions

The following are definitions of common position classification terms.

Allocation - The process of assigning a position to a class of positions in the salary schedule based upon an evaluation of its duties and responsibilities.

Class of Positions, or Class - A Class of Positions is a category of Position(s), each of which is sufficiently similar in respect to duties and responsibilities such that the same title may be used to designate each Position in the group, the same salary range may be equitably applied, the same qualifications required, and the same examination used to select qualified employees. A Class of Positions is equivalent to a job title.

Classification - A process by which Positions of a common nature with similar duties and same levels of complexity and responsibility are grouped together into the same category or Classes. It provides the basis for establishing salary schedules and the assignment of classes to Grade levels for compensation administration.

Class Specifications - Class Specifications are descriptions of the duties and responsibilities of a Class of Positions that distinguish one Class from another. They are, in effect, the general descriptions utilized to determine the proper level to which a Position should be assigned, and they include the general job duties and minimum qualifications of the Position. Class Specifications shall include sufficient detail so as to accurately reflect the job duties

Desk Audit - A review of the duties and responsibilities of a Position through an interview with the incumbent and/or incumbent's supervisor usually occurring at the employee's desk or regular place of work.

Employment Status – A designation given to a Class of Positions, each Class identified by title code and title. Positions are designated as Career Service and/or Probationary Career Service unless specifically exempted from the Career Service. There are five Employment Status designations that exempt positions from Career Service as described in Rule II, Section 2.

Grade - A salary range or level within a salary schedule. A salary schedule is typically designed with numerous Grade levels; each Grade level has a number of pay steps from entry to maximum. Classes of Positions are allocated to Grade levels based on an evaluation of its duties and responsibilities and pertinent compensation factors.

Position - A Position is a job to be performed by the full or part time employment of one individual. A position exists whether it is filled or unfilled.

Position Description Questionnaire – A Position’s specific duties and responsibilities and reporting relationships are documented via a Position Description Questionnaire (PER15).

Prevailing Rate – A rate of pay determined by the U.S. Department of Labor based upon the particular geographic area for a given Class. It is the rate established for craft, labor and trade positions within the City service based on acceptable evidence of the wage prevailing in a specific industry.

Reclassification/Reallocation - The process of reassigning a Position to a different Class of Positions based upon a re-evaluation of its duties and/or responsibilities as they may have changed.

Regrade - The process of changing the existing salary Grade Allocation of a Class of Positions to a different salary Grade based on an evaluation of internal and external compensation factors.

Special Rate - A single rate salary designation not covered by a formal pay structure.

Section 2 - Classification of Positions

All Positions shall be grouped into Classes of Positions, or Classes, by the Commissioner of Human Resources. Each Class shall include those Positions sufficiently similar in duties and responsibilities so that similar requirements as to training, experience, knowledge, skill, and the same rates of compensation are applicable to the Class.

Section 3 - Class Titles and Codes

- (a) A standard Class title and code number shall be used to identify each Class in the Classification Plan and all Positions Allocated to that class.
- (b) Each Class title shall be generally descriptive of the work of the Class and indicate, where applicable, its relative importance and responsibility among other Classes.
- (c) The Class title and/or code shall be used to designate Positions of the Class or to identify incumbents in all budget, payroll, and personnel documents, other official records and in internal correspondence or other communications relative to the personnel administrative process.

Section 4 - Preparation and Content of Class Specifications

The Commissioner of Human Resources shall be responsible for the preparation and maintenance of a written Class Specification for each established Class of Positions and such Class Specifications shall constitute the official Class Specifications of Classes in the City Service. Class Specifications shall be based on a review of the duties and responsibilities of Positions appropriately Allocated to a Class, and each Class Specification will be assigned a title code and descriptive title of the Class; define the nature and parameters of the work including the essential duties and responsibilities; provide a statement of education and experience qualifications; and describe the knowledge, abilities and skills and physical requirements for efficient performance of the work; the date the original Class Specification or a revision was approved, and such other pertinent information as the Commissioner of Human Resources deems appropriate.

Section 5 - Interpretation of Class Specifications

The Class Specifications are descriptive and explanatory and not restrictive. They are intended to indicate the kinds of Positions that should be Allocated to the various Classes and shall not be construed as determining the entire range of duties and responsibilities that may be assigned to a given Position or as limiting or modifying the power of any department head to assign other duties appropriate to the Class of Positions, and to direct and control the work of employees under his or her supervision. The use of a particular expression or illustration as to duties shall not be held to exclude others not mentioned that are of similar kind or quality.

Qualifications commonly expected such as honesty, motivation and work interest shall be implied as requirements for each class, even though they may not be specifically mentioned in the specification.

The statement of minimum qualifications in a Class Specification for any Class constitutes the minimum education, training and experience requirements to be used in the selection of candidates for positions in the class.

Section 6 - Classification and Pay Plan (Schedule A)

The Commissioner of Human Resources shall prepare and maintain the Classification and Pay Plan, Schedule A, covering all classified Positions. The pay plan will include comprehensive listings of all current Class titles and their assigned salary Grades or salary designations, salary ordinance (regulations governing the administration of the classification plan and employee benefits for classified positions set forth in the annual appropriation ordinance) and listings of all pay schedules.

Section 7 - Position Control

The Commissioner of Human Resources shall establish a system of Position control to allow for the review of vacant Positions for appropriateness of classification prior to the initiation of the hiring process, thereby ensuring an efficient and effective recruitment and selection process.

As part of the Position control system, policies and procedures shall be established to ensure proper coordination with operating departments to identify and correct potential misclassifications, identify opportunities to affect cost savings, and to maintain the equity of the City's Position Classification Plan.

Section 8 - Allocation of New Positions

A department head shall submit, to the Commissioner of Human Resources, a Position Description Questionnaire (PER15) for any new Position to be created. The Commissioner shall verify and analyze the duties and responsibilities of each proposed new Position and, on the basis of this study: (a) determine the need for the Position and, when justified, (b) Allocate the proposed new Position to the appropriate Class, or (c) create a new Class of Positions.

The Commissioner of Human Resources shall also have the responsibility to establish the category of Employment Status of the Position based on the provisions of Chapter 2-74-030 of the Municipal Code of Chicago.

Section 9 - Reclassification of Positions

The purpose of a Reclassification instituted pursuant to this section is to ensure that a Position, as defined by its duties and responsibilities is Allocated to the appropriate Class of Positions and therefore properly classified. Reclassification may not be used as a means for providing salary increases or a promotional tool or in lieu of disciplinary action.

- (a) Departments may modify the duties of their Positions in order to meet operational needs. Where a department makes a significant change in a Position's duties, the department must ensure that they do not violate the Personnel Rules, the City's Acting Up Policy, obligations under Collective Bargaining Agreements, or any other City policy.

Employees may request of their department heads, in writing, a review of their individual Positions for proper Allocation. However, it is the final decision of the department head to request or not request such review by the Commissioner of Human Resources.

Departments may not withdraw requests to reclassify positions once an evaluation has been conducted or a recommendation has been made.

- (b) A department head shall report to the Commissioner of Human Resources whenever a significant and permanent change is made in the duties and responsibilities of a position involving either the addition of new duties or the taking away or modification of existing duties.

A department head shall submit a Position Description Questionnaire (PER15) of such Positions to the Commissioner of Human Resources for Position Classification review and evaluation.

- (c) The Commissioner of Human Resources, upon his or her initiative, may initiate periodic reviews of selected Positions to ensure they are properly classified and, if justified, shall Reclassify the Position to a more appropriate class.
- (d) When the Reclassification of a Position requires it, the Commissioner of Human Resources shall create a new class or make other appropriate changes in the Classification and Pay Plan, Schedule A. If the Commissioner of Human Resources finds that any Position is improperly classified in that the person in such Class of Positions is not performing a sufficient portion of the job duties of the Class, the Commissioner of Human Resources shall cause the Position to be reclassified from its current class title to a new class title.
- (e) The Commissioner of Human Resources may require that a reclassified position be posted and filled pursuant to the City of Chicago Hiring Plan when:
 - i. The nature of the reclassified position's work is outside of the Job Group in which the position was originally classified;
 - ii. The reclassified position is not using the Equipment or Licensure designated on the Class Specification for the Class of Positions to which the position was originally classified to perform the essential functions of the position;
 - iii. The reclassified position is using Equipment or Licensure that is not designated on the Class Specification for the Class of Positions to which the position was originally classified to perform the essential functions of the position; or,
 - iv. The reclassified position has been given additional supervisory or managerial duties that were not designated to the Class Specification for the Class of Positions in which the position was originally classified.
- (f) After any applicable appeal process has expired, the Reclassification recommendation shall be deemed final and binding.
- (g) The Commissioner of Human Resources shall transmit to the department head concerned and to the Budget Director correspondence setting forth any change to the allocation of a Position or any modifications of the Classification and Pay Plan. The department head or his/her designee shall notify an employee of a reclassification recommendation affecting their position within five (5) calendar days after the recommendation letter is issued or in accordance with an applicable Collective Bargaining Agreement.

- (h) The Commissioner of Human Resources or her/his designee shall track whether Reclassification recommendations are implemented and shall provide that information to OIG Hiring Oversight.
- (i) Implementation of a Reclassification recommendation shall be taken no later than January 1 of the following budget year. The Commissioner of Human Resources may approve exceptions to this rule with written justification from the department head who received the reclassification recommendation. Notice of any exception shall be provided to OIG Hiring Oversight.

- VESSA may be taken in increments, intermittently, or on a reduced work schedule.
- The ACT does not create a right for an employee to take unpaid leave that exceeds the unpaid leave time allowed under, or is in addition to, the unpaid leave time permitted by the Family and Medical Leave Act.
- Although VESSA leave may be unpaid, an employee may elect to substitute accrued paid leave for any portion of VESSA leave. However, an employer may not compel an employee to exhaust any portion of his/her paid leave before using (or in substitution of) VESSA leave.
- Group health plan benefits must be maintained through the duration of leave under the conditions coverage would have been provided if the employee had continued in employment.

An employer must reinstate an employee to the same or equivalent position upon his/her return from VESSA leave.

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES
UNDER THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT

Basic Leave Entitlement

FMLA requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to eligible employees for the following reasons:

- For incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- To care for the employee’s child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee’s spouse, son or daughter, or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee’s job.

Military Family Leave Entitlements

Eligible employees with a spouse, son, daughter, or parent on active duty or call to active duty status in the National Guard or Reserves in support of a contingency operation may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered service member during a single 12-month period. A covered service member is a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who has a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of duty on active duty that may render the service member medically unfit to perform his or her duties for which the service member is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy; or is in outpatient status; or is on the temporary disability retired list.

Benefits and Protections

During FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee’s health coverage under any “group health plan” on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms.

Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee’s leave.

Eligibility Requirements

Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least one year, for 1,250 hours over the previous 12 months, and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

Definition of Serious Health Condition

A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee’s job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities.

Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Use of Leave

An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer’s operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

Substitution of Paid Leave for Unpaid Leave

Employees may choose or employers may require use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave for FMLA leave, employees must comply with the employer’s normal paid leave policies.

Employee Responsibilities

Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and generally must comply with an employer’s normal call-in procedures.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the employer to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave. Employees also must inform the employer if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. Employees also may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave.

Employer Responsibilities

Covered employers must inform employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any additional information required as well as the employees’ rights and responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for the ineligibility.

Covered employers must inform employees if leave will be designated as FMLA-protected and the amount of leave counted against the employee’s leave entitlement. If the employer determines that the leave is not FMLA-protected, the employer must notify the employee.

Unlawful Acts by Employers

FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to:

- Interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided under FMLA;
- Discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

Enforcement

An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer.

FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights.

FMLA section 109 (29 U.S.C. § 2619) requires FMLA covered employers to post the text of this notice. Regulations 29 C.F.R. § 825.300(a) may require additional disclosures.

Section 9 - Step Three: Appeal to the Grievance Review Board

1. If the employee is dissatisfied with the department head's review and decision, the employee may make an appeal to the Grievance Review Board within five (5) working days of the receipt of the department head's decision. The employee shall use the "Grievance Appeal Form".
2. The Board shall conduct a hearing of the appeal as soon as practicable. The hearing may be conducted by the Board, Board member(s) or by a Fact Finder designated by the Board. The employee and the department will be given an opportunity to present evidence at the hearing. The hearing will be informal and not bound by strict rules of evidence.

The function of the Fact Finder is to assemble all available facts surrounding the grievance and, thereafter, issue a written report to the Board. The Board shall advise both the employee and the department head of its decision in writing. The decision of the Board is final and binding.

3. If a grieving employee works under the direction of a member of the Grievance Review Board, that Board member shall not participate in the grievance review. The remaining two (2) members of the Board will appoint a third department head to serve on the Board for that grievance.
4. Three (3) months from the date of the Board's decision, the department head shall submit a report to the Board regarding the implementation of the decision.

Section 10 - Discrimination Charges

This grievance procedure may be used by an employee who has a problem involving a discrimination charge.

Section 11 - General Provisions

- (a) Modification of Time Limits - Each party to a grievance shall respond in such manner that the grievance shall be promptly resolved. However, with the written consent of both parties, the time limits outlined in this Rule may be extended for no longer than a matching period of time.
- (b) Failure to Observe Time Limits - Failure of any delegated representative of the City to respond within the time limits shall entitle the employee to carry the grievance to the next higher step in the grievance procedure. Failure of an employee to comply with the time limits outlined in this Rule or as modified shall be deemed to constitute a withdrawal and waiver of her or his claim.

- (c) Use of City Time - The employee shall be allowed reasonable working time to file a grievance, a request for review, or an appeal, and to attend related hearings. This use of time shall not interfere with the regular operations of the department.
- (d) Definition of Working Days - "Working Days" in this Rule shall mean all days other than Saturday, Sunday, and legal holidays. Saturday, Sunday, and legal holidays shall be excluded in computing the number of days within which action must be taken or notice given within the terms of this Rule.
- (e) Withdrawal of Grievance - An employee may request withdrawal of a grievance at any time.
- (f) Effective Date and Precedent Setting Value of Grievance Resolutions - Any resolution of a complaint below the level of the Grievance Review Board shall not set a precedent for the resolution of other grievances. Any resolution of a complaint or grievance by an immediate supervisor or a senior supervisor that would result in the expenditure of funds or additional time off, shall not be effective unless and until approved by the appropriate department head.
- (g) Meetings Between the Parties - All parties to a grievance are urged to meet to resolve the problem.
- (h) Designation of Senior Supervisor(s) - The department head shall designate one or more senior supervisors for the purpose of investigation and resolution of grievances.
- (i) Employees Covered Under Other Grievance Procedures - Any employee covered by a grievance procedure negotiated under collective bargaining processes is not eligible to file a grievance under this Rule.

RULE XVII - COMPLAINTS OF DISCRIMINATION

Section 1 - Rights protected

Any employee or applicant for City employment who believes that he/she has been discriminated against on the basis of race, color, sex, gender identity, age, religion, disability, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation, marital status, parental status, and military service or discharge status may file a complaint with the City of Chicago Diversity and Equal Employment Opportunity Division of the Department of Human Resources ("EEO Division") or his/her department's EEO Liaison.

Any person who believes that they have been subjected to harassment by a City employee on the basis of race, color, sex, gender identity, age, religion, disability, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation, military service or discharge status may file a complaint with the EEO Division or his/her department's EEO Liaison.

Section 2 - Exceptions

Any person making a complaint of discrimination or harassment concerning the Chicago Police Department must make that complaint in accordance with the General Orders in effect in that department.

Section 3 - Making Complaints

Anyone who believes that he/she has been subjected to any action, decision or harassment in violation of this policy, or who witnesses another being subjected to improper conduct may make a complaint or report to the EEO Division or his/her department's EEO Liaison.

Supervisors who receive complaints or who become aware of any harassment in violation of this policy must report such conduct to his/her department's EEO Liaison or to the EEO Division. A supervisor who is aware of, or reasonably should be aware of discriminatory, harassing, or retaliatory conduct, whether or not any employee complains about such conduct, but fails to report it may be subject to discipline. Supervisors and managers should also encourage individuals who believe that the City of Chicago's Diversity and Equal Employment Opportunity Policy has been violated to consult with a representative of the EEO Division or to his/her department's EEO Liaison.

An individual who believes that this policy has been violated may report the incident orally or in writing. Where the complaint is taken orally, the supervisor receiving the complaint or the EEO Division staff member shall document the complaint in writing. If the EEO Officer determines that the allegations of the complaint, even if true, would not violate the city of Chicago Diversity and Equal Opportunity Policy ("EEO Policy"), but describes other possible misconduct, the complaint will be forwarded to the EEO Liaison for further review by the department. If the allegations of a complaint describe conduct that is not covered by the EEO Policy, but if true, may constitute other misconduct, the EEO Officer will advise the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General in writing of the complaint. In appropriate situations, the EEO Division will work with departments to address complaints through mediation, counseling, training, or other courses of action as determined by the EEO Officer.

Persons who wish to discuss a possible violation of this policy without revealing their identity may do so by telephoning or writing the EEO Division. In such cases, the EEO Division shall investigate, if warranted, or take such follow-up action as may be appropriate and possible, given the constraints required by anonymity.

If any employee knowingly makes a false accusation of discrimination or knowingly provides false information in the course of an investigation of a complaint, such conduct may be grounds for discipline. A complaint made in good faith, even if found to be unsubstantiated, will not be considered a false accusation.

Section 4 - Time limits

A complaint of unlawful discrimination or harassment must be filed within one year of the last alleged act of discrimination or harassment giving rise to the complaint. A complaint of retaliation must be filed within one year of the date of the action that is alleged to have been retaliatory.

The filing of a complaint of discrimination does not limit, extend, replace, or delay the right of any person to file a similar charge with the Chicago Commission on Human Relations or any state or federal agency having authority to hear matters of discrimination charges.

Section 5 – Confidentiality

All complaints and investigations will be kept confidential to the extent possible. However, in certain circumstances, the EEO Division is required by law to disclose information related to an investigation.

Section 6 – Investigation of Complaints

Upon receiving a complaint or report of discrimination, the EEO Officer will first determine whether the allegations, if true, would constitute a violation of the EEO Policy.

In cases where the allegations, if true, describe conduct that would constitute a violation of the EEO Policy, the EEO Officer will assign the matter a case number and initiate an investigation. The EEO Officer or his/her designee shall direct the investigation of all complaints. The EEO Officer may delegate certain procedures established in the EEO Policy to an EEO Investigator.

When the investigation is complete, the EEO Officer will prepare an Investigation Report containing a summary of the evidence, and a finding of whether a Policy violation has occurred. The report will state whether the allegations are “sustained” or “unsustained”. In instances where the EEO Officer finds that the allegations are sustained, the Investigative Report shall indicate the specific portion of the Policy and related section(s) of the Personnel Rules that have been violated, and shall make a recommendation of discipline to the relevant department head.

All Investigation Reports will be sent to the relevant department head(s) with a copy to the departmental EEO Liaison(s). In sustained cases, a copy of the report will also be submitted to the Corporation Counsel and to the Commissioner of the Department of Human Resources.

The EEO Officer shall provide written notification to the complaining party (“Complainant”) and the accused party (“Respondent”) advising them of the outcome of the investigation. The departmental EEO Liaison will be copied on this notification.

Within 30 days of receiving an Investigation Report making a sustained finding, the department head shall advise the EEO Officer in writing of the actions taken by the department. The department head will indicate whether or not he or she has followed the recommendation stated in the report, taken some other action, or taken no action.

RULE XVIIIA - DISABILITY APPEAL PROCEDURE

Section 1 - Appeal Procedure for Employees/Applicants Rejected

Any applicant or employee who is rejected for City employment based on a physical examination, and who believes such rejection is based on a disability which,

- (a) under law, the City is required to attempt to reasonably accommodate to allow the person to perform the essential functions of the position in question; or,
- (b) does not exist, or exists, but does not prevent the person from performing the essential functions of the position;

may file a written appeal with the Commissioner of Human Resources within ten (10) days of receipt of written notice of such rejection. If mailed, notice shall be deemed to be received five (5) days after mailing. The written appeal may be delivered to the Department of Human Resources, Room 1100, City Hall, during regular business hours, or mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested. The appeal must include the name, address, and telephone number of the person rejected, the position and department or agency involved, the circumstances of the rejection and any matters, including any medical evidence, which the person believes supports the appeal. The Commissioner of Human Resources shall cause the appeal to be investigated which may, but need not, include consultations with City or other physicians. The Commissioner of Human Resources may, but need not, direct that the person be re-examined at City expense. The Commissioner of Human Resources shall render a decision in the appeal which shall be binding on the applicant, employee and agency or department head.

Section 2 - Progressive Discipline

- (a) The City of Chicago approves of the concept of progressive and corrective discipline for Career Service employees and recommends its use when appropriate. Progressive discipline is a systematic approach to correct unwanted behavior and deter its occurrence by administering disciplinary actions based upon various factors, including, but not limited to, the severity of the infraction, the number of times it has occurred, and the totality of the circumstances surrounding the misconduct. The City of Chicago uses progressive discipline at its discretion and does not solely rely on this concept in every instance when taking disciplinary action.

While it is not possible to list every act which will or might result in disciplinary action, actions itemized in Section 1 reflect conduct which is deemed to be inappropriate and which may result in disciplinary action. This list is not exhaustive, but is offered instead to generally provide notice of inappropriate conduct. Supervisors may deem that conduct other than that itemized above is improper and warrants discipline. Further, the department head, or her/his designee, has the discretion to determine what degree of discipline is appropriate after weighing all the situational factors involved in the misconduct.

- (b) TYPES OF DISCIPLINARY ACTION - The types of disciplinary action which may be imposed include the following:

Reprimand, which is a censure expressing formal disapproval of the actions of an employee, but carrying no loss of privileges. A reprimand may be oral or in writing, but in either case is made part of the employee's record.

Suspension, which is the temporary removal from employment, accompanied by a concurrent and temporary loss of the privileges of employment, including, but not limited to, salary or wages. The department head has authority to suspend an employee for thirty (30) days or less.

Demotion, which is the reduction of the grade or class of employment and corresponding permanent reduction in salary or wages.

Discharge, which is the act of dismissal from employment and the permanent loss of all privileges of employment. Discharge includes the withdrawal of any right to reinstatement from layoff or leave of absence.

Section 3 - Notification - Suspensions of Thirty (30) Days or Less

Whenever a disciplinary action is to be taken against a Career Service employee, except where the disciplinary action is an oral reprimand, the employee shall be notified in writing and on a timely basis, of such action. The notification shall include a description of and cause for the disciplinary action. As appropriate, the Career Service employee shall further be advised as follows:

- (a) If the disciplinary action is a suspension of not more than ten (10) days, the employee has the right to request a department review of the actions. Such request must be submitted in writing to the department head within five (5) working days of the notification of the disciplinary action.
- (b) If the disciplinary action is a suspension of more than ten (10) days and less than thirty-one (31) days, or a second suspension within a six-month period, the employee has the right to request the Human Resources Board for a hearing to review such action. Such request must be submitted to the Human Resources Board in writing within five (5) working days of notification of the disciplinary action.

The written notice may be personally served or mailed to the employee.

Section 4 - Reviews and Hearings for Career Service Employees

- (a) Departmental Review of Suspensions of Ten (10) Days or Less - The procedure for review of suspensions of ten (10) days or less is determined by the department head, subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Human Resources. This procedure should include, but is not limited to, adequate notice of the time and place of review, an opportunity for the employee to be heard and the right to ask questions. The department head may designate a review officer or a review panel on a case by case basis to review such disciplinary actions.
- (b) Hearings Before the Human Resources Board - Any Career Service employee who is suspended for more than ten (10) days but less than thirty-one (31) days, or who is suspended within a six (6) month period after a previous suspension, may request a review of any such suspension by the Human Resources Board. In all disciplinary actions under the control of the Human Resources Board, hearings shall be conducted by a member or members of the Human Resources Board or by a hearing officer appointed by the Board.
 - (1) Representation - An employee may appear on her or his own behalf, or be represented by an attorney at law licensed to practice in the State of Illinois. The employee shall have the right to know the charges, to present testimony on her or his own behalf and to cross examine other witnesses.
 - (2) Approval, Disapproval or Modification of Disciplinary Action - The Board may approve or disapprove the disciplinary action sought by the employee's department head, or may increase or reduce the severity of the disciplinary action as the facts warrant.
 - (3) Human Resources Board Decisions Final - All findings and recommendations made by the Board member(s) or by a hearing officer shall be certified to the full Human Resources Board. The decision of the Board shall be final as to approving, disapproving, or modifying the decision of the Board member(s) or hearing officer. Also, it shall have the authority to call for an additional hearing before the full Board. Should it require an additional or new hearing, the Board shall afford to the employee all of the protections available at the initial hearing.
 - (4) Certification of Findings and Enforcement - After the Human Resources Board makes its final decision on charges or requests for review, it shall certify the decision to the Commissioner of Human Resources who shall notify the appropriate department head.

Section 5 - Disciplinary Procedure - Discharge, Demotion or Suspension Over Thirty (30) Days

A Career Service employee may be discharged, demoted or suspended for a period exceeding thirty (30) days by the department head or designee subject to appeal to the Human Resources Board upon request of the employee in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Human Resources Board. Such procedures shall provide for statement of the charges upon which discipline is based together with an explanation of the evidence supporting the charges and an opportunity for the employee to respond to the charges in writing before action is taken. The charges and explanation of evidence need not be in any particular form, but must be sufficient to apprise the employee of the matters on which discipline may be based. The employee's response must be reviewed by the department head or designee responsible for making the decision, provided that such designee may not be the person who initiated the charges against the employee. No permanent employee in the Career Service may be discharged, demoted or suspended for more than thirty (30) days unless the statement of charges and any matters in support are first reviewed by the Departments of Law and Human Resources, before the employee is notified of such action.

Section 6 - Powers and Duties of Department Heads

Department heads shall expressly have the right to discipline a Career Service subordinate for cause subject to the review processes described above. The department head may delegate to subordinates the authority to discipline employees.

RULE XVIII - DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS FOR NON-CAREER SERVICE EMPLOYEE

Non-Career Service employees are employed "at will". They may be disciplined or discharged at any time for any reason or no reason and have no expectation of continued employment. Likewise, they may resign at any time for any reason. Therefore, while the work rules applicable to Career Service employees set forth in Section I of Rule XVIII may be utilized as guidelines by supervisors in dealing with non-Career Service employees, and will be useful to such employees in conforming their conduct to City requirements, discipline is not limited to the reasons stated therein, nor are the hearing and progressive discipline procedures applicable. Department heads shall expressly have the right to discipline or otherwise take action concerning a non-Career Service subordinate. The department head may delegate to subordinates the authority to discipline non-Career Service employees.

RULE XIX - DRUG AND ALCOHOL TESTING POLICY

The City of Chicago has an obligation to maintain a safe, healthy and productive work environment for its employees. An employee under the influence of drugs or alcohol on the job can be a serious safety risk to himself or herself, to other employees, and in certain instances, to the general public. Abuse of drugs or alcohol also has a negative impact on the productivity and health of City employees. In order to maintain a safe and healthy work environment the City of Chicago has established the following drug and alcohol testing policy.

1. Drug and Alcohol Testing

The City may require testing of an employee for whom there is a reasonable suspicion that the employee has used drugs or alcohol or is under the influence of drugs or alcohol while at work, on City property or on City business.

The City may require testing of any employee involved in an accident which results in significant injury requiring medical attention or significant property damage while at work, on City property or on City business.

The City may require testing of any employee involved in a fight while at work, on City property or on City business.

2. Definitions

"Under the influence" - Any mental, emotional, sensory or physical impairment due to the use of drugs or alcohol.

"Illegal drug" - Any drug that is not legally obtainable; that is being used in a manner or for a purpose other than prescribed.

"Reasonable suspicion" means a belief that an employee may be under the influence of drugs or alcohol. Such belief must be based on some objective indicia, which may include, but is not limited to, the following matters: erratic or unusual behavior by an employee, including, but not limited to, noticeable imbalance, incoherence and disorientation, which would lead a person of ordinary sensibilities to conclude that the employee is under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol; observation of possible ingestion of alcohol or use of drugs; and involvement in an accident, fight or other circumstances which could lead a reasonable person to believe that the use of drugs or alcohol may have been involved.

3. Disciplinary Action

Any employee who tests positive for drugs and/or alcohol use or refuses to cooperate with testing procedures will be terminated for a first offense.

4. Employee Assistance Program

The City has established an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) which provides help to employees experiencing personal difficulties. The City encourages anyone with a drug or alcohol problem to utilize the EAP. Use of the EAP is voluntary and confidential. It is the responsibility of all employees to seek assistance from the EAP before alcohol abuse or drug use leads to disciplinary action.

An employee's decision to utilize the EAP will not be used as the basis for disciplinary action. However, participation in an EAP program will not preclude discipline, nor will it be a defense to disciplinary action where the information leading to the adverse employment action was gathered from sources other than EAP. Under no circumstances will enrollment in an EAP program after disciplinary action has been initiated be deemed a defense to such action. Further, the City is under no obligation to offer participation in an EAP program prior to, or in lieu of, imposition of discipline.

RULE XXVII

NOTE: Rule XXVII (Attendance) is no longer applicable by action of the City Council.

RULE XXVIII - SICK LEAVE

Section 1 - Legitimate Use of Sick Leave

It is the policy of the City of Chicago that sick leave is an employee benefit to be used only for a legitimate illness or injury of an employee, or a legitimate illness or injury of a member of an employee's immediate family which necessitates the employee's absence from work. Sick leave may also be used for an employee's medical appointments or the medical appointments of an immediate family member.

Section 2 - Family Illness

Abuse of sick leave shall be defined as sick leave taken for any purpose other than an employee's personal illness or illness of an immediate family member that necessitates the employee's absence. An immediate family member includes the employee's (i) mother, father, husband, wife, brother or sister (including blood, step or half), son or daughter (including blood, step or adopted), father-in-law, mother-in-law, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, grandparents or grandchildren; or (ii) domestic partner or the domestic partner's mother, father, son or daughter (including blood, half, step or adopted), provided that the employee's domestic partner is registered with the Department of Human Resources.

Section 3 - Definition of Illness

The terms "illness" or "injury" encompass any sickness, illness or injury that unduly restricts or renders the employee incapable of performing her/his normal duties.

An illness or injury of a member of the employee's immediate family is one where the employee is required to attend or provide needed care for a member of the immediate family who is in fact ill or incapacitated.

Section 4 - Reasonable Evidence

The employee has the burden of establishing that an illness related absence was legitimate. Failure to provide such reasonable evidence as may be required by department supervisory personnel may result in the denial of sick leave benefits or revocation of benefits granted. The determination as to appropriateness of the sick leave will be made by the employee's supervisor. In addition to denial of sick leave benefits, where the circumstances indicate that the employee is abusing sick leave, disciplinary measures (suspension, termination, etc.) may be taken. Disciplinary action may also be taken when there is excessive absenteeism.

What constitutes reasonable evidence will depend upon the facts and circumstances in each individual case and may include one or more of the following: (a) doctor's note or certification, (b) medical release, (c) employer directed physical examination, (d) telephoning the employee at home to verify her/his being there, (e) employee's personal statement or employee's sick leave certification, or (f) questioning the employee.

Section 5 - Patterns of Abuse

The following patterns of sick leave use may be considered as indicators of sick leave abuse: day(s)

- (a) at the beginning or end of the work week,
- (b) before or after vacation,
- (c) after payday,
- (d) before or after military or jury duty,
- (e) before or after a designated holiday, or
- (f) any other pattern such as every Wednesday or once a month.

Such patterns may be investigated by department supervisory personnel, and corrective action taken where warranted.

Section 6 - Confidentiality

The City is mindful that medical records and other medical information often contain intimate details of a highly personal nature. The confidentiality of any information provided by employees pursuant to this rule will be scrupulously guarded. Only designated department supervisors are authorized to receive or have access to employee medical information. Any unauthorized disclosure of employee medical information may subject the individual(s) who disclosed the information to disciplinary action.

Section 7 - Procedures

The following procedures shall be followed by all City personnel when the employee's absence is or will be due to the illness or injury of the employee or a member of the employee's immediate family or due to an employee's medical appointment or the medical appointment of a member of the employee's immediate family.

- (a) Notification - The employee shall notify her/his supervisor of the absence and the reason therefore in the time period specified by the employee's department or as soon as is reasonably possible. In emergency situations, this notification may be made on behalf of the employee by any responsible person. The notification shall be made in person or by telephone.

When someone other than the employee is or has been requested to make the required notification, the employee will be solely responsible for the notification being made. If an employee becomes sick or ill during his/her work shift, the employee must notify or cause notification to be made to the appropriate supervisor.

In the event sick leave notification is not made within the time period required by the employee's department, the absence shall be without pay, unless the employee can later substantiate and document that it was impossible to make or cause such notification.

Sick leave notification must be made for each workday that paid sick leave is being requested. An employee with a disabling condition and/or one who is hospitalized may satisfy the notification requirement with a physician's written statement of the nature of the employee's condition, the reason why this condition prohibits work and the expected duration of absence. Such statement may suffice for up to a month. Thereafter, additional statement(s) may be submitted on a monthly basis, or more frequently if the department head requires.

(b) Absences of Three (3) or More Consecutive Work Days

(1) If an employee is absent from work for three (3) or more consecutive work days and the employee received professional medical attention, the employee must submit a doctor's note or certification upon the employee's return to work. The doctor's note or certification will be submitted to the employee's supervisor. A form prescribed by the Commissioner of Human Resources will be utilized for submission of the certification.

(2) If an employee is absent from work for three (3) or more consecutive work days and the employee did not receive professional medical attention, the employee must submit a personal certification upon the employee's return to work. The personal certification will be submitted to the employee's supervisor. A form prescribed by the Commissioner of Human Resources will be utilized for submission of the certification.

(c) Absences of Less Than Three (3) Consecutive Work Days - Where a supervisor has sufficient reason to believe that an employee's absence from work for less than three (3) days is not due to illness, although claimed to be so by the employee, the employee must submit a certification or any other such reasonable evidence as may be necessary to provide sufficient and legitimate justification for the employee's absence. The certification or other evidence will be submitted to the employee's supervisor upon request and in the form requested.

- (d) Absences Due to The Illness or Injury of Immediate Family Member - If an employee is absent from work due to the illness or injury of a member of the employee's immediate family, the employee must submit a personal certification upon the employee's return to work. The personal certification will be submitted to the employee's supervisor on a form prescribed by the Commissioner of Human Resources.
- (e) Absences Due to Medical Appointments - If an employee is absent from work due to a medical appointment or the medical appointment of an immediate family member, the employee must submit a certification of the appointment upon the employee's return to work. The certification of appointment will be submitted to the employee's supervisor on a form prescribed by the Commissioner of Human Resources.
- (f) Medical Releases - If an employee is absent from work due to illness or injury or due to a medical appointment and the employee received professional medical attention and a review of the pertinent medical records is deemed necessary, the employee must provide a Medical Authorization/Release for release of medical records upon request. The Medical Authorization/Release should be submitted to the employee's supervisor on a form prescribed by the Commissioner of Human Resources.
- (g) Employer Directed Medical Examinations - If an employee is or seeks to be absent from work due to an illness or injury, the department head or his/her designee may direct the employee to submit to a medical examination in any of the following instances: a) to verify the employee's medical condition, b) to verify the medical diagnosis of the employee's personal physician, c) to verify the employee's ability to return to work; and/or d) in cases where the department head or his/her designee believes that questionable circumstances exist.

As a result of such physician's statements and examinations, the City may approve or deny the employee's sick leave requests and may establish limits and conditions for any further approved sick leave connected with the employee's illness or injury.

Whenever an employee is directed to submit to a department directed medical examination, the employee must provide a Medical Authorization/Release for release of medical records upon request. The Medical Authorization/Release should be submitted to the employee's supervisor on a form prescribed by the Commissioner of Human Resources.

- (h) Return to Work Certification - If an employee is absent from work due to an illness or injury, the City may require that a physician certify the employee's ability to return to work as a condition precedent to the employee's actual return to work based on recovery from the illness or injury. However, the department head or his/her designee may require a complete physical examination for good cause shown. The physician's certification of an employee's ability to return to work must be submitted directly to the designated City official(s) by the certifying physician on a form prescribed by the Commissioner of Human Resources.

This certification must be provided for any employee who is sick or disabled for ten (10) or more consecutive work days and must be submitted to the department head or other appropriate supervisor before the employee will be permitted to return to work.

The City may also require, at its discretion, that an employee submit to a department directed medical examination in conjunction with the certification received from the employee's physician.

Nothing in this section affects the City's right to otherwise independently review the employee's medical situation.

Section 8 - Application

This rule is applicable to all City employees. Failure to follow its provisions may result in the denial of requested sick leave benefits, and/or other disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

ADDENDUM/RULE 28

The terms "illness" or "injury" as defined herein do not include fatigue due to working overtime or a lack of sleep; or sickness or injury due to intoxication or the employee's own willful, illegal action.

The following are examples of illnesses and/or injuries that are not covered under this policy:

- (a) hangovers but not illnesses or injuries resulting from the long term effects of alcohol abuse;
- (b) lack of sleep unrelated to a covered illness or injury;
- (c) fatigue due to working overtime;
- (d) fatigue due to activities unrelated to a covered illness or injury;
- (e) intentionally self-inflicted injuries;
- (f) injuries that result from and/or occur while the employee is engaged in a violation of City, state or federal criminal ordinances and/or laws and/or statutes;
- (g) injuries that result from and/or occur while the employee is engaged in a violation of City of Chicago Personnel Rules and Procedures;

- (h) injuries resulting from use of illegal drugs but not illnesses or injuries that result from the long term effects of drug abuse.

These examples of illnesses and/or injuries not covered under this policy are illustrative and are not to be considered exhaustive.

This policy is designed to cover only legitimate illnesses and injuries. It is not the policy of this City to reward malingering and/or other improper conduct by providing sick leave benefits to the employees that abuse the sick leave privileges. Therefore, mental and physical conditions that are the result of the employee's own wrongful conduct; and/or, are designed to abuse the sick leave privileges are not legitimate illnesses or injuries, as defined in this policy, and do not entitle such employees to utilize sick leave benefits.
