

Airport Concessions

49 CFR 23.39 states in part:

If you are applying to be an Airport Concession Disadvantage Business Enterprise (ACDBE), you must take the following additional steps when completing your DBE application:

(1)

In the space available in section 2(B) (7) of the form, the applicant must state that they are applying for certification as an ACDBE under the “other category.”

(2)

With respect to section 4 (c) of the form, the applicant must provide information on an attached page concerning the address/location, ownership/lease status, current value of property or lease, and fees/lease payments paid to the airport.

(3)

The applicant need not complete section 4 (I) and (J). However, the applicant must provide information on an attached page concerning any other airport concessions businesses the application firm or any affiliate owns and/or operates, including name, location, type of concession, and start date of concession.
