Re: Statements of Financial Interests
Case No. 87084.E

Dear [REDACTED]

The Board of Ethics is in receipt of amendments to the by-laws of the Chicago Tourism Council which make the Council's general membership "solely advisory" in nature. Accordingly, appointed officials serving on the general membership of the Chicago Tourism Council are exempted from the requirement to file annual Statements of Financial Interests.

Since they retain authority to make binding decisions, enter into contracts and make expenditures, other than expenditures necessarily incurred for research purposes, appointed officials serving on the Board of Directors of the Chicago Tourism Council will continue to be subject to the filing requirement.

Should you have any questions, please contact the Board of Ethics at 744-9660.

Sincerely,

S. Brandzel
Chairman
